

INSTALLATION AND SETUP

1

Position the Antenna:

The HD-BLADE can be hung on a wall, stuck to a window or laid flat on a table. Use whatever position gets you the most channels.

2

Attach a Coax Cable:

Connect a length of coax cable by screwing the connector onto the HD-BLADES connector.

3

Connect cable to TV

Connect the other end of the cable to the Cable/ Antenna input on the TV.

4

Scan for Channels

Once the antenna is in position and connected to your TV, you can perform a channel scan to start pulling in stations

Every TV is different, so you may want to consult your TV Manual on how to perform this channel scan.

NOTE: Make sure TV is set to Antenna and NOT Cable, before running a channel scan or you will get little or no channels.

AMPLIFIER SETUP

HDABLADE100A, HDABLADE100CA,
HDABLADE100VA, & HDABLADE100VCA

Plug the included USB to Micro-USB cable into a USB power source. Most HDTVs, BluRay, DVD players, and sound systems have an open USB port that you can use to power this amplifier. You can also use a USB Power Supply that are commonly included with most cell phones and tablets.

STAND ASSEMBLY

ONLY APPLIES TO MODEL: HDABLADESTAND

To assemble the HD-BLADE stand first snap the bottom portion of the stand onto the base. Next insert the top of the stand into the assembled base.

When used for models HDABLADE100V, HDABLADE100VA, HDABLADE100VC, and HDABLADE100VCA, only the first two sections of the stand need to be assembled.
